THE THIRD ORDER SECULAR OF ST. FRANCIS

A religious order founded by St. Francis of Assisi in 1221, to afford seculars, the clergy and laity, an opportunity to live according to the Gospel counsels through the observance of an approved rule of life. Since 1921, the Fraternities in the United States and Canada have united in Tertiary Provinces, and these in turn are federated into a national organization known officially as the Third Order of St. Francis in the United States and Canada.

In 1941, the Administrative Board of Bishops of the N.C.W.C. designated the Most Rev. Christian H. Winkelmann, Bishop of Wichita, as Episcopal Protector of the Third Order. He was succeeded in 1945 by Most Rev. Richard Cushing, Archbishop of Boston.

The Franciscan Provincial superiors form its Directive Board, while the regular functions of the Third Order are administered by an Executive Board and the Third Order Commissaries. The office of the national secretary (8140 Spring Mill rd., Indianapolis 20, Ind.) serves as a clearing house for information respecting the Third Order in all its phases. The present membership in the United States and Canada is 250,000 distributed among about 1800 local Fraternities and 29 Provinces.

D. Pontifical Association of the Holy Childhood, National Office, North Side Post Office Box, Pittsburgh 12, Pa.—Founded in 1843, by Bishop Charles de Forbin Janson. It is the official agency of the Holy See through which Catholic children of the world make their contribution of prayer and alms to the spiritual and temporal welfare of children in mission lands. Since its beginning, it has enjoyed the personal favor of every Pope. In 1926, Pope Pius XI elevated the Society to Pontifical Rank. Holy Childhood endeavors to attain its end through the united efforts of all Catholic children who as members are taught to cooperate in propagating the Faith by means of study, prayer and sacrifice. All funds are distributed annually to every part of the mission world by a Pontifical Commission, a generous allotment being provided for the Home Missions of the United States. All allocations sent to the Missions through the agency of the Holy Childhood are used solely in the interests of the children of these missions. In this way, the world-wide membership of the Association each year procures Baptism for more than 600,000 infants and supports and educates nearly 1,000,000 orphans.
